

Question 1 What is Object-Oriented Programming (OOP)?

Answer: Object-Oriented Programming is a way of writing programs using objects. It helps programmers organize code better and is commonly used in many programming languages.

Question 2 What is the primary purpose of a database management system (DBMS)?

Answer: A DBMS is used to save data in a system. It stores information and allows users to access it when needed.

Question 3 Explain the difference between HTTP and HTTPS.

Answer: HTTP is used for websites, while HTTPS is a safer version that provides some security for users when browsing.

Question 4 What is Artificial Intelligence?

Answer: Artificial Intelligence is technology that allows machines to perform tasks automatically. Some examples include chatbots and recommendation systems.

Question 5 What is the role of an operating system?

Answer: An operating system helps the computer run programs and lets users interact with the computer.